1                   TITLE I—PROTECTING 2                    POLITICAL SPEECH

3   SEC. 101. FINDINGS.

4         Congress finds the following:

5                 (1) The structure of the Constitution and its 6         amendments represents the radical idea that any 7         sovereign power exercised by the Federal Govern-8         ment flows either directly from the people or 9         through the States they established to govern them-10        selves. In the words of the Ninth and Tenth Amend-11        ments, “[t]he enumeration in the Constitution, of 12        certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or dis-
13        parage others retained by the people.” “The powers 14        not delegated to the United States by the Constitu-
15        tion, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved 16        to the States respectively, or to the people.”.

17                (2) Among the many freedoms it protects, the 18         First Amendment prevents Congress from making 19         any law abridging the freedom of speech, the right 20         of the people peaceably to assemble, or the right of

1       the people to petition the Government for the re-2       dress of grievances.

3                 (3) Any proposed Federal action concerning 4        freedom of speech, protest, or petition must start
5        with an analysis of the First Amendment. Congress
6        must ask whether the proposed action would abridge 7        these freedoms, and any uncertainty must be deter-8        mined in favor of fewer restrictions on speech.

9                 (4) In particular, political speech, uttered in the 10      furtherance of self-government, must raise an even 11      higher bar to congressional abridgement. The mech-12      anisms and media used to offer political speech must 13      realize the same protections.

14                 (5) As the Supreme Court has recognized, the 15      Constitution grants Congress only a very narrow in-16      terest in the regulation of political speech, the pre-17      vention of corruption or the appearance of corrup-18      tion.

19                 (6) In order to uphold and effectuate the Con-20      stitution, any Federal statute that goes beyond this 21      interest must be repealed, and Congress must exer-
22      cise its article 1 authorities to do so.

1   SEC. 102. REPEAL OF LIMITS ON COORDINATED POLITICAL 2                   PARTY EXPENDITURES.

3       (a) REPEAL OF LIMITS.—Section 315(d) of the Fed-4 eral Election Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C. 30116(d))
5 is amended—

6                   (1) in paragraph (1)—

7                      (A) by striking “may make expenditures” 8                      and inserting “may make expenditures, includ-9                      ing coordinated expenditures,”; and 10                  (B) by striking “Federal office, subject to 11                  the limitations contained in paragraphs (2), (3), 12                  and (4) of this subsection” and inserting “Fed-13                  eral office in any amount”; and 14                  (2) by striking paragraphs (2), (3), (4), and 15                  (5).

16       (b) CLARIFYING TREATMENT OF CERTAIN PARTY
17 COMMUNICATIONS AS COORDINATED EXPENDITURES.— 18 Section 315(d) of such Act (52 U.S.C. 30116(d)), as 19 amended by subsection (a), is amended by adding at the 20 end the following new paragraph:

21                  “(2) For purposes of this subsection, if a public com-22 munication paid for by a committee of a political party
23 or its agent refers to a clearly identified House or Senate 24 candidate and is publicly distributed or otherwise publicly 25 disseminated in the clearly identified candidate’s jurisdic-
26 tion, the communication shall be treated as a coordinated

1 expenditure in connection with the campaign of a can-2 didate for purposes of this subsection.”.

3 (c) CONFORMING AMENDMENT RELATING TO INDEX-
4 ING.—Section 315(c) of such Act (52 U.S.C. 30116(c))

18 under section 315(a)(3) of the Federal Election Campaign

25 such Act (52 U.S.C. 30116(c)) is amended by striking

2   (1)(C), and (2)(B)(ii).

3   SEC. 104. EQUALIZATION OF CONTRIBUTION LIMITS TO 4                   STATE AND NATIONAL POLITICAL PARTY

7   Election Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C. 30116(a)(1))
8   is amended—

9                   (1) in subparagraph (B), by striking “a na-10          tional political party” and inserting “a national or 11          State political party”;

12                  (2) by adding “or” at the end of subparagraph
13          (B);

14                  (3) in subparagraph (C), by striking “; or” and 15          inserting a period; and 16                  (4) by striking subparagraph (D).

17       (b) CONTRIBUTIONS BY MULTICANDIDATE POLIT-
18          ICAL COMMITTEES.—

19                  (1) IN GENERAL.—Section 315(a)(2)(B) of 20          such Act (52 U.S.C. 30116(a)(2)(B)) is amended by 22          national or State political party”.

4                                 “(i) a threshold established by subsection (a)(2) 5                             shall be increased by the percent difference deter-6                             mined under subparagraph (A);

7                                 “(ii) each amount so increased shall remain in 8                             effect for the calendar year; and 9                                 “(iii) if any amount after adjustment under 10                             clause (i) is not a multiple of $100, such amount 11                             shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of $100.”; 12                             and 13                             (B) in paragraph (2)(B)—

14                                 (i) in clause (i), by striking “and” at 15                             the end;

19                             lowing new clause:

20                                 “(iii) for purposes of subsection (a)(2), cal-21                             endar year 2023.”.

22                             (c) ACCEPTANCE OF ADDITIONAL AMOUNTS FOR 23 CERTAIN ACCOUNTS.—

24                             (1) PERMITTING ACCEPTANCE OF ADDITIONAL 25 AMOUNTS IN SAME MANNER AS NATIONAL PAR-

1       TIES.—Section 315(a) of such Act (52 U.S.C.
2       30116(a)) is amended—

13      inserting “committee of a national or State political 14      party”.

15       (3) STATE PARTY CONVENTION ACCOUNTS DE-16      SCRIBED.—Section 315(a) of such Act (52 U.S.C.

18      lowing new paragraph:

19       “(10) An account described in this paragraph is a 20      separate, segregated account of a political committee es-
21      tablished and maintained by a State committee of a polit-22      ical party which is used solely to defray—

23       “(A) expenses incurred with respect to carrying 24      out State party nominating activities or other party-25      building conventions;

1               “(B) expenses incurred with respect to pro-
2 viding for the attendance of delegates at a presi-

15 by a State political party, the amendments made by this 16 section shall be considered to have been included in section

8         of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C.

17         candidate for election for Federal office or an au-18         thorized committee of a candidate for election for 19         Federal office.”.

20         (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

21                 (1) FUNDRAISING COSTS.—Section 323(c) of 22         such Act (52 U.S.C. 30125(c)) is amended by add-

24         case of a person described in subsection (b), the pre-

26         by such person in coordination with a candidate for

1       election for Federal office or an authorized com-
2       mittee of a candidate for election for Federal office, 3       as determined pursuant to regulations promulgated 4       by the Commission for the purpose of determining 12          inserting “subsection (b)”.

13 SEC. 106. PARTICIPATION IN JOINT FUNDRAISING ACTIVI-
14 TIES BY MULTIPLE POLITICAL COMMITTEES.

15 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

16                     (1) While Federal law permits the Federal 17          Election Commission to engage in certain “gap-fill-18          ing” activities as it administers the Federal Election 19          Campaign Act of 1971, the regulations promulgated 20          by the Federal Election Commission to govern joint 21          fundraising activities of multiple political committees 22          are not tied specifically to any particular provision 23          of the Act, and while these regulations generally du-24          plicate the provisions of the Act, they also impose 25          additional and unnecessary burdens on political com-

1       mittees which seek to engage in joint fundraising ac-
2       tivities, such as a requirement for written agree-3       ments between the participating committees.

4                 (2) It is therefore not necessary at this time to 5       direct the Federal Election Commission to repeal the 6       existing regulations which govern joint fundraising 7       activities of multiple political committees, as some 8       political committees may have reasons for following 9       the provisions of such regulations which impose ad-10       ditional and unnecessary burdens on these activities.

11                 (b) CRITERIA FOR PARTICIPATION IN JOINT FUND-
12       RAISING ACTIVITIES.—Section 302 of the Federal Elec-13       tion Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C. 30102) is amended 14       by adding at the end the following new subsection:

15                 “(j) CRITERIA FOR PARTICIPATION IN JOINT FUND-16       RAISING ACTIVITIES BY MULTIPLE POLITICAL COMMIT-
17       TEES.—

18                 “(1) CRITERIA DESCRIBED.—Two or more po-19       litical committees as defined in this Act may partici-20       pate in joint fundraising activities in accordance 21       with the following criteria:

22                 “(A) The costs of the activities shall be al-23       located among and paid for by the participating 24       committees on the basis of the allocation among

1           the participating committees of the contribu-
2           tions received as a result of the activities.

3           “(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), a 4           participating committee may make a payment
5           (in whole or in part) for the portion of the costs 6           of the activities which is allocated to another 7           participating committee, and the amount of any 8           such payment shall be treated as a contribution 9           made by the committee to the other partici-
10          pating committee.

11          “(C) The provisions of section 315(a)(8) 12          regarding the treatment of contributions to a 13          candidate which are earmarked or otherwise di-14          rected through an intermediary or conduit shall 15          apply to contributions made by a person to a 16          participating committee which are allocated by 17          the committee to another participating com-18          mittee.

19          “(2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in 20          this subsection may be construed to prohibit two or 21          more political committees from participating in joint 22          fundraising activities by designating or establishing 23          a separate, joint committee subject to the registra-24          tion and reporting requirements of this Act or by 25          publishing a joint fundraising notice.”.

7           (1) RESTRICTIONS.—An entity of the Federal Government may not disclose to the public information revealing the identification of any donor to a tax-exempt organization.

11          (2) EXCEPTIONS.—Paragraph (1) does not apply to the following:

13           (A) The Internal Revenue Service, acting lawfully pursuant to section 6104 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any successor provision.

17           (B) The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, acting lawfully pursuant to section 3 of the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995 (2 U.S.C. 1604).

7                 (d) TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATION DEFINED.—In this

10      Revenue Code of 1986 and is exempt from taxation under 11      section 501(a) of such Code. Nothing in this subsection

13      section 527 of such Code as a tax-exempt organization for 14      purposes of this section.

15                 (e) PENALTIES.—It shall be unlawful for any officer
